During the Fall of 1500, we, through our Agent. Mr. B. Richmond, Jun., furnished many Fruit Trees to the inhabitants of Grayson, Collin and Fannin Counties; and we have proved beyond a question that Fruit can be successfully cultivated, and that Trees procured from our Nutrery have given universal satisfaction in these districts;—the trees making fine growth and producing fruit of superior quality, as the following testimonias will show, which we publish by parmission, thus enabling us to satisfy the public that they can, through our agents, supply themselves with Fruit and other trees from a well-established and reliable Nursery. The following trom the well-known Orchardist, Mr. Wm. G. Gentry, of Sherman, Texas, (who has the largest fruit orchard in Northern Texas), is the result of his experience with Fruit Trees from our Nurseries:—

"Mesers. T. B. Yols & Co., Nurserymes:
Bias: I have on my house farm an orchard of Apple, Pear and Peach Trees, procured from your Nursery, through your agent, B. Richmund, Jun., in the Itali of 1860, which have been in bearing since the years 1882, 1783 and 1864. The Trees have made a strong and healthy growth from the first year until the present, producing large crops of superior fruit. From my own experience as an orchardist, and that of my neighbors, I unhositatingly recommend year Nursery to all who wish to may good reliable trees.

We, the undersighed, having bought Yruit Trees from, et have knowledge of the trees sold by the firm of T. B. Yale & Co., in this and adjouning counties, de fully owners with Mr. Gentry in the above statement, and feel justified in saying that the Nursery firm of T. B. Itale & Co., is an hourable and reliable house.

Office at Richmond, Va., 1 November 18th, 1870. ; TO THE TEXAS PROPLE: A recent Card from F. L. Hale, once on General Agent in Texas, demands notice. We did not desire to injure him, hence only said our reasons were satisfactory for discharging him. As he will not let it rest on such a basis, we would say—Hale did not report on work received, nor did he remit funds collected as his contract required; hence, on these grounds alone we were justified in our action. In addition, we were informed of grave criminal charges against Hale; and, on examining
